BOXING.

The crowd at the Metropolitan club's boxing show to-morrow night will be made up largely from strangers, judging by the requests from out of town for seats. An order for a dozen was received last night from Scio, the reserve section being specified, and other nearby towns have been heard from in a similar way. The low railroad rates will bring a large crowd of sports from Pittsburgh especially, and it will be strange if the club house is not packed when Louisa Campbell and Sam Bolen enter the ring to do battle.

The contest should be a fast one, since it brings together two crack-jacks at the weight, 126 pounds. And you want to keep your eye on the preliminary, in which Walter Burgo and Frank Boyle come together. They are booked to go six rounds to a decision, and it will be hot from the start.

Manager Mason and Campbell will arrive from Pittsburgh to-day, and they will be followed to-morrow by the rest of the Pittsburgh delegation. Bolen, who has completed his training in this city, is in fine shape.

GARDNER AND WHITE DRAW

In Six Fast Rounds at Chicago. Honors Were Even.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—Oscar Gardner, of Wheeling, W. Va., and Tommy White, of this city, fought six fast rounds to-night, the contest being declared a draw at the close. Gardner started out with a rush in the first round, but missed, and White sent his head back with a left jolt. The remainder of the round was consumed in these tactics, Gardner trying hard to get to close quarters, but White held him off with his long left. Near the end of the round White started the blood from Oscar's nose with a stinging left. The second round was an exact repetition of the first.

Gardner continued his rushing tactics in the third, but it availed him little, as White kept out of harm's way by quick footwork, and before Gardner could get straightened up again White would be on top of him, and send the blood from the face. Gardner changed his style in the fourth, and landed some good body blows. The fifth round was lively, but White, with his inflexible left, managed to keep Gardner at arm's length, and the Kid was unable to do any damage. Gardner crouched low in the last round, and got to White's stomach with some hard punches, but Tommy evened matters with his left to the face and an occasional cross with the right to the head.

Referee Miller said after the bout that had been called on to render a decision it would have been in favor of White without question.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Vogel and Deming Minstrels appeared at the Opera House last night before a large audience and made a decided hit. The first part is a decided novelty, differing from the stereotyped settings usually seen in minstrel shows. The second part, too, is catchy and novel. The company closes its engagement with to-night's performance.

"A Woman in the Case."

The production of "A Woman in the Case," at the Grand is attracting very appreciative audiences, and deserves crowded houses at the matinee and night performances to-day, which will close the engagement. Heading the cast are the inimitable comedy team Bartlett and May. The former tall, angular, a veritable contortionist; the latter a winsome and diminutive little lady; and both exceedingly clever. The audiences cannot get enough of their specialties. The comedy is clean and lively, and there are no dull moments while it is being presented.

The Pittsburgh Orchestra.

The closing concert of the fifth season of the Pittsburgh Orchestra, Victor Herbert, conductor, are nearly at an end, the concert this Friday evening and Saturday afternoon being the last pair but two. A great Wagner programme will be played this week, including selections from the later music dramas of the master, some of which have not been heard before under Mr. Herbert's direction. The symphony is by Beethoven, No. 8. There will also be heard some charming music by Humperdinck, who was a disciple of Wagner.

The soloist will be Julian Walker, bass singer in New York City, said to possess one of the finest bass voices heard in this country in years. Mr. Walker will sing an aria by Handel and the vocal part in the selection from Wagner's "Wotan's Farewell." Taken as a whole the programme is notable.

LEGAL NEWS.

Some Recent Decisions of Courts of General Interest.

An attestation of the reports of a national bank, made by directors, is held, in Gerner v. Mosher (Neb.) 46 L. R. A. 244, sufficient to make them liable for false representations in favor of one who bought stock in reliance on false statements in the reports.

The right of a broker employed to sell property to be at the same time the agent of both purchaser and seller, and entitled to commission from both, is denied in Friar v. Smith (Mich.) 46 L. R. A. 239, unless both principals know that he is acting in such dual capacity.

One who obtained grain from a building by boring an auger hole through the side of the building and taking the grain out through the hole, without himself entering the building, is held, in State v. Crawford (N. D.) 46 L. R. A. 312, to be guilty of burglary.

The use of ground for cemetery purposes so as to constitute a private nuisance by reason of its polluting and poisoning water in the neighboring wells is held, in Lowe v. Prospect Hill Cemetery Asso. (Neb.) 46 L. R. A. 237, to be restrainable by injunction.

Criminal responsibility for a conspiracy to cheat by materializing securities of a professed medium is held, in People v. Gilman (Mich.) 46 L. R. A. 218, to be punishable, notwithstanding the contention that no crime was committed because it was an obvious humbug—that in the nature of things could not deceive any rational person.

Contracts among independent and unconnected manufacturers looking to the control of the price of their manufacture by limitation of production, by restrictions on distribution, or by express agreements, are held, in Trenton Pottery Co. v. Oliphant (N. J.) 46 L. R. A. 255, to be opposed to public interest and unenforceable. But it is held that courts would be obliged to recognize and enforce contracts for the purchase by an individual manufacturer of the business of his competitors even to the last one, although such purchases tend to eliminate competition and the last purchase would completely exclude it, at least for a time.

To make a person "learned in the law" within the meaning of a constitutional provision prescribing such learning as necessary to make one eligible to be judge, it is held, in Jamieson v. Wiggin (S. D.) 46 L. R. A. 317, that he must be admitted to practice, or entitled to be admitted, as an attorney at law in the state.

The president of a village ordering an arrest to be made illegally without a complaint and warrant, for violation of an ordinance by keeping a peanut stand in the street without a license, is held, in Tillman v. Beard (Mich.) 46 L. R. A. 215, to be liable for damages, though he acted in good faith and was by statute a conservator of the peace. But the fact that the ordinance which he was endeavoring to execute was absolutely void is held insufficient to make such officer liable for false imprisonment in attempting to enforce it, when he acted in good faith.

Placing a governor for the regulation of the pressure of gas on a gas meter or its lead pipe connections, which belongs to the gas company, is held, in Consolidated Gas Co. v. Blondell (Md.) 46 L. R. A. 187, to be a trespass, if done without the consent of the gas company; but it is held that the consumer has a right to place such governor on any part of the pipe which belongs to him on his own premises.

For an injury caused by a defective highway combined with the negligence of a third person it is held, in Bartram v. Sharon (Conn.) 46 L. R. A. 144, that no recovery can be had under a statute giving a right of action for a penalty in case of injuries caused by a defective highway. The court refuses to hold that the defect in the highway causes the injury when the culpable negligence of a third party is the proximate cause of the injury.

Persons staying at a hotel under a contract for a special rate which is given to all who stay longer than a week, are held, in Meacham v. Galloway (Tenn.) 46 L. R. A. 319, not to be guests for whose property the landlord is an insurer, but to be boarders, for the loss of whose property he is liable only in case of negligence.

MARTIN'S FERRY NEWS.

The Daily Chronicle of Wheeling's Progressive Neighbor.

Some time ago the Ohio and Pennsylvania Coal Company took options on about 800 acres of coal land lying contiguous to their coal lands at Yorkville. The options taken by the Ohio and Pennsylvania Coal Company was for the coal underlying the farms of Ross Jordan, consisting of 200 acres, Joseph Moore, 300 acres, and K. Hoge, 300 acres, and will expire March 1. Yesterday the coal company asked for the deeds to the coal lands, which will be tendered in a few days, the delay being caused by the absence of Mr. Hoge, who is in Chicago. The price to be paid for the coal lands is about $25 per acre, which is considered a fair price.

The mammoth bazaar and festival to be given by St. Mary's church commences this evening, and continues the remainder of the week. All the preparations for the big affair have been completed, and it will no doubt eclipse all efforts along this line in the past. DELAWARE HAPPENINGS.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County.

The Republican city committee, met last night and decided to call the primaries for Saturday afternoon and evening, March 2. Candidates must hand in their names before March 1, at 2 p. m. This gives less than two weeks for campaigning, for nomination, but it gives time enough for the disappointed ones to work up feeling if they are so inclined. There is little probability of a third ticket, however. The primaries are likely to make the election that will be voted at the April election, and incidentally it may be remarked that the primaries will probably be well attended.

Chris Baker, tried to a jury on Monday, in common pleas court, for attempted assault upon an eleven-year-old girl, was convicted and will be sentenced to the penitentiary. The crime was committed in lower town last August, but Baker disappeared for a time until he thought it had quieted down, and then Marshal Johnston unearthed him.

The employees under John J. Southers at the blast furnace, presented that gentleman with an elegant silver service, as a token of their regard for him. He is a forceful man and efficiency counted in his advancement of the employees.

THE VIRGINIA COPPER CO.

Stocks for Sale Up to March 17, 1900.

The directors of this company, at a meeting held February 14, 1900, unanimously resolved to issue and sell shares of stock up to and including March 17.

These shares are of the par value of $1, are non-assessable, and are now for sale at 50 cents per share. After March 17 the books will be closed. The company has the most favorable reports from its superintendent regarding the products of its mines in Graham county, Arizona, which are now in full operation. The latest report, dated February 8, states that there are five feet in width of copper ore in one mine alone, and that expert miners state it to be the best showing claim in that neighborhood. The title to our property is now beyond any question, and it is believed that an investment in this company is certain to be successful. Parties desiring stock are respectfully invited to call on the undersigned secretary without delay, as after March 17 no stock can be sold at the above price.

The directors, as well as all the stockholders, reside, with two or three exceptions in this city, and are prominent business people. The company needs only sufficient money to develop and pay for their properties. Further information as to which is fully shown by the company's prospectus, and can be ascertained by application to A. F. FAULKNER, Secretary, Room 15 Masonic Temple, Wheeling, W. Va.
